THESE AND OTHER DISEASES OF THE

any disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent and too violent erections, which are accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposita no record will be found, but there will be some small particles of albumen which will appear, or the color will be of a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid hue. This is the result of the disease, the cause of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. SPINNEY will guarantee a perfect cure for all such cases, and a healthy restitution of the great urinary organs.

THE STATE'S DISGRACE

Whatever result may be reached in the examination of the asylum management, the present State Government must answer to the people for the humiliating fact that a great public trust has been prostituted to personal uses. The people of this State, regardless of party, have discovered that it was a mistake to suppose that scheming and tricky fourth-rate men, when elevated to positions of trust and honor by the uncertain methods of politics, could forget their former habits and associations. A public office brings to such men no responsibility or duty, save that of advancing their personal or party interests; no idea of public trust associates itself with public position in minds of this character. An office is but the patrimony of the successful manipulator, and once attained, public duty is lost sight of in the race for personal aggrandizement. When the Legislature created a Board of Commissioners for the Insane, it was not deemed possible that the office of Superintendent of the Asylum could be made a subject of barter and sale. It was not deemed possible that any self-respecting physician would in party convention and the lobby of the Legislature lend his vote and influence to advance the interests of one, from whom in return he expected and exacted a vote in the Board of Commissioners, nor was it expected that any man who could be elected Lieutenant-Governor of the State, would, on his part, prostitute his position to reward his follower and supporter at the expense of the State. It is idle to review the action of the Board of Commissioners. With the exception of two members, each has shown himself to be utterly incompetent, and unfaithful to the trust confided to him. Each has imported into its administration the elements of favoritism and rewards for personal not public service. Witness the disgraceful spectacle of four public officers, with deliberation and premeditation, dividing the official spoils of an insane asylum. The supporters of Laughton and the blood-relation of certain politicians, is to be put in place, and to accomplish this end, the friend and follower of Adams must be associated with him. And to clean up and round-off the unsavory job, a member of the Legislature who rode with the Lieutenant-Governor in his bushwhacking raid on the State Treasury, is also brought into camp. What sort of huckstering is this? Are the offices of the public to be bartered from hand to hand like stalefish in the market? Will the people of the State permit the unfortunates committed to their care by Almighty God, to be taken from the protection of science, and handed over to the ignorance of politics?

We are weary and sick of the whole business—wary of charges and counter-charges—sick at heart for the wards of the State, over whose heads the warring politicians are giving battle. Unless we greatly mistake the temper of the people, the next legislature will be required to find a remedy for the evils of the present system of governing the asylum. The Board of Commissioners is a nuisance and should be abolished as a purely political and mischievous institution. Let a gentleman be selected by the Legislature for his professional and scientific attainments, to take charge of the asylum, and to hold office during good behavior. Confer the power of suspension to the Governor, to be exercised only when the Legislature is not in session, and then only for cause. When the Governor exercises the power of suspension, require him to make a full report to the Legislature of the causes and reasons moving him. Let his action be affirmed or disaffirmed by that supreme body. If this plan is not a good one, let another and better one be devised, but in God's name, let the State alone lift its asylum out of its present condition.

The wires are in trouble again today, and part of our dispatches are missing.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.

Republican Representation.

WASHINGTON, December 7.

To remove in some measure what is regarded by many as a very grave injustice in the representation at the Republican National conventions, which gives States and Districts all over the country the same voice, regardless of Republican votes, when in some districts in the South, even the form of nominating Republican candidates to Congress is not pursued, Senator Frye, a member of the Republican National Committee, will propose at the next meeting, December 16th, a new basis of representation, as follows: Each State to be entitled to four delegates, as now, each district to one instead of two, as now; to one additional delegate for each ten thousand east within its limits in 1880 for the Republican candidates, for Presidential Electors, and to one additional delegate for a majority of a fraction of ten thousand votes. Votes for Presidential electors is taken as the best indication of the real strength of the party, and being less liable to be affected by local causes. The effect of this proposition will not materially change the relative strength of the several States, and will only increase the total membership of the convention fifty. California, Colorado and Nevada will be unchanged. Oregon will gain one delegate. The Northern States will be increased.

Trouble Begun

WASHINGTON, December 7.

An old member of the House said this morning that the new men are seeking positions on the Ways and Means, Appropriations and Judiciary Committees, and in fact wanted to be connected with all important committees. It is generally conceded that Morrison will be given the Chairmanship of Ways and Means, and Randall of Appropriations. Democratic members do not unanimously favor Morrison's selection for the Ways and Means Chairmanship, on the ground of opposition being, as expressed by Protectionists. His appointment does following Carlisle's election to the speakership, who will precipitate the tariff issue.

Knocked Things

DENVER, December 6.

Snow commenced falling at noon and continued all night. The weather is warm and the snow attached itself to the telephone wires until they were two inches in diameter. At 4 o'clock this morning the wind blew almost a gale. Three hundred poles 18 inches in diameter were blown down, carrying a mass of wires. All the trains were delayed until this evening, and outside communication is completely shut off. The damage to the telephone lines amounts to about $15,000. The damage to railroads, telegraph lines, and electric light companies is heavy. Strangely no loss of life is reported, and few serious accidents.

Petitions.

WASHINGTON, December 7.

A petition from the Legislature of Nebraska, asking that roads to whom the Government had granted lands be either compelled to take out patents so they may be taxed, or the lands revert to the people; also that duty be removed from barbed wire; also urging improvements in the Missouri river.

Slater, from the Chamber of Commerce of Astoria, Oregon, praying that lands granted the Oregon Central Railroad May 4, 1870, be declared forfeited and thrown open to settlement.

Quality.

LAONICA, December 7.

Samon, the murderer, at the hearing to-day, appeared nervous. In answer to the question, "Samon, are you guilty or not guilty?" he responded, "guilty, sir." He was ordered to remain in jail till March, when the case will be heard. It is thought the weight on his mind will entirely break him down and cause his death before March. He eats very little but complains of nothing.

Freckles are now fashionable, because Princess Louise has them.

Senator Miller sent letters to Senators and Representatives of the Pacific Coast States, inviting them to meet at his committee room to-morrow to discuss Pacific Coast matters.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.

Will Divide It.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 7.

The wheat freight ring which stands to incur losses amounting to $2,500,000 from the decline in freight, is composed of several smaller pools, so that the individual losses will be probably light. Wangenheim & Co., and Waterman & Co., are not likely to lose any serious amount, nor will any of the regular wheat exporters whose charters were mainly taken at profitable rates.

Shiedied.

Florentine Borel, who attempted to kill Zoe Lause, a laundress last night, was found dead this morning, having succumbed with a dose of strichnine.

An Unknown Man in San Quentin.

Three years ago Robert Peacock, a married man, living in Oakland, California, was arrested, charged with felonious assault on Edith Martin, 8 years old. He was convicted and sentenced to San Quentin for 14 years.

Mrs. Martin, the mother of the girl, is now dying at death's door, and has just confessed that the arrest and conviction of Peacock was the result of a conspiracy by her, Mrs. Peacock and a man named Cobb; and that he is absolutely innocent of the crime with which he was charged. Cobb was intimate with Peacock's wife. Mrs. Martin says she was induced to enter into the scheme by an offer of money, and between them they instructed the child to make the charge and swear to it. The strange part of the whole proceedings is that at the time of trial in Oakland, physicians testified to an attempted outrage on the child having been committed.

The unfortunate man Peacock, has already served three years of the sentence imposed. It is stated that steps will be taken to obtain his release.

A Partner Decamps.

Waterson, of the firm of Waterson & Dewey, produce merchants, whose decampment with $12,000—all the available funds of the firm, was announced a few days ago, is now accused of having forged the name of his partner to several notes negotiated by him to the amount of about $15,000.

Waterson left his wife, an elderly lady, sick, and stole every cent of money in the house. His family is entirely destitute. Detectives have been placed on his track.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES.

PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.

Fear the Prophet.

KHARTOUM, December 7.

A dervish entered a bazaar at Sennar Wednesday evening and proclaimed the annihilation of Hicks Pasha's army near El Obleid. The dervish swore on the Koran that there was not one Egyptian soldier left alive.

In Kordofan 5,000 bearers armed themselves with Remington rifles and declared for El Mahdi.

A correspondent says this is the most seditious news received since the news of the destruction of Hicks Pasha's army. The proceeding at Sennar may be repeated at Khartoum, or even at Assuan.

The Doubtless Will.

SYDNEY, December 7.

A resolution adopted by the conference of delegates of the Australian Legislature called to consider the question of the annexation of the New Hebrides, New Guinea and other South Sea Islands to Australia declares that any further annexations of Pacific regions south of the equator by foreign powers would be highly injurious to Australia and the British Empire.

It leaves to England the initiative action, confidently believing she will promptly adopt the wishes of the conference.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The crisis in the ship-building trade on the Clyde is growing more and more intense.

James R. Keene says there is not a scintilla of truth in the report of his financial embarrassment.

I. Frederick, long a watchmaker and jeweler in this town, invites patronage in his line, and an examination of his rare stock of time-pieces and jewelry, together with other articles for the approaching holidays.

All that Levy Bros. offer for sale is reliable, and they sell at low prices. They thoroughly understand the principle of the "nimble sixpence," and act thereon; go, or send your wife there, when you wish to purchase dry goods for the family.

First among clothing houses in Reno stands the White House, where Abrams Bros. are ready to furnish a pair of suspenders, a cravat, a fine beaver overcoat, a trunk or any other article in their line, at such prices as shall only astonish by its cheapness. Go and see for yourself.

Business is always brisk at the Palace. The busy, who wish to see somebody; the thirsty, who want liquid refreshments; and the tired, who want merely to rest, are all accommodated there, and all are welcome. It is always open, and ready to dispense liquids, solids and information to the traveler.

Jamison & Co. have won golden opinions since they began business; but they have gone far ahead of expectation in their preparation for the holiday business of this year. Ladies inform us that they have a stock of dry goods not to be excelled (save as to quantity) in San Francisco; and that what they offer is "too lovely for anything."

Nasby has cigars of the best brands and tobacco that cannot be excelled. But these are but small items of a stock that would require a catalogue instead of a jot to enumerate. Whatever you want he has; and his charges are ridiculously small. Nasby is a Reno institution, and money received by him goes to improve Reno, and benefit you.

PERSONALS.

Colonel Harding, the Humboldt county stockman, went below this morning.

J. Hess, President of the Boca Brewing Company, was here this morning.

Jacob Klein, one of Carson's oldest and wealthiest citizens, is investing money in San Bernardino county.

Geo. Cutting has just returned from a Summer drive through Nevada and Idaho. He left here March 21st.

Bees in Washoe Valley.

A rancher in Washoe valley, who has devoted his leisure time to agriculture, says that the profit on a moderate investment in bees is superior to that in anything else. On an expenditure of $100 he realized last year $110.

Excursion to Boca.

H. W. Higgins is talking of getting up an excursion to Boca. Those who go will find the skating first-class. It will wind up with a dance at Pete Comstock's Boca Hotel.

AT THE ASYLUM. What Witnesses Say About the Management.

The session of the Board for the Insane lasted until 5 o'clock last evening and the evidence is continued from yesterday. Mr. Marsden was excused to examine Mr. Jaquish and others. Mr. Jaquish testified as to the work in the six rooms. Mr. Folsom furnished a piece of pipe and covered it with asbestos which Dr. Bishop thought was too costly. Mr. Deal here said that the Board had ordered it done. Mr. Folsom said it was mostly done by State labor and he charged $10 for two days attention to it. Dr. Bergstein thought Dr. Bishop ought to have found out what the job would cost before doing it.

M. Nathan testified that last July Dr. Bergstein told him that he had left the asylum. He had some time to attend to his room and Dr. Bishop refused to let him have that woman. Mr. Nathan went to the asylum and Dr. Bishop said Dr. Bergstein could not have Mrs. West because she tattled. She told about an attendant that abused patients. In the afternoon Dr. Bishop came down town and said if Dr. Bergstein would go back all should be right, and he returned.

John Sunderland said "Bishop said he would not permit Mrs. West to come out because she was a mischief maker. Nathan, Bishop, Bergstein and I talked it over in my store. I understood that it was all settled amicably and Dr. Bergstein came back." In answer to questions Mr. Sunderland said: I sold some pegs and a child's last. I did not charge anything for the last. They are only parts of lasts and were of no value to me."

Mr. Marsden was recalled, and Dr. B. endeavored to show that he sometimes drank too much, and was rendered unfit for duty. Case and he were at several dances at Glendale. Dr. B. explained to the Board that the attendants often left the institution short-handed, so that if anything happened, the inmates would be unprotected. On the night of July 4th, most of the attendants were at Dr. Bishop's house to a musical. A week later, and at other times Dr. Bishop invited some of the attendants to his house. Mr. Marsden had never seen a patient stretched. When Ben Franklin came with his throat cut, he had gone into his cell one night with some visitors, the bandage was off and they talked about whether he breathed through the hole in his neck, or his nose. M. lighted a match and held it within a few inches and found it effected by air. He did not hold his finger over the hole till he choked Franklin. The evidence brought out showed that patients were allowed to attend other patients' funeral. A workman paid by the State, painted Dr. Bishop's phonet with paints bought of Osburn & Shoemaker and paid for by the State. It is used by Dr. Bishop, and was painted on bad days.

Mr. Jaquish explained about the zinc lined rooms. He said he furnished the zinc for $96 in May, but did not put it in till August when it was paid for.

Mr. Marsden's examination was resumed. "Dr. Lewis comes sometimes when Dr. Bishop is away. When he and I are away, Mrs. Walker, the matron, is in charge. Dr. Bishop has discharged several attendants for cruelty to patients. Dr. B. asked him about Mrs. Watson sitting down on his lap in the yard once." He thought Marsden did not use proper dignity on that occasion.

Mrs. Walker, the matron, described her duties: "There is always an attendant among the female patients. The patients fight sometimes, but one attendant can hold their hands and prevent them. If the attendant is away, I am in the ward or where I can see them. My instructions are if they fight, to throw a towel over ones face and call for assistance. There are large stones in the yard, but if there is a fight, men can leap the fence. I have never seen a patient abused. I heard some one say Mrs. Crane struck a patient, but did not see it." Mr. Deal said that if the idea of Dr. Bergstein was to show lack of attendants, that was the Board's fault, for they limited the number. Mrs. Walker said "no one was ever beaten black and blue." Mrs. Glassett has to be held to be undressed, as she resists, and she may get blue spots, but she is never abused. All the female attendants were at Dr. Bishop's on the evening of July 4th. The next time Mrs. Quinn was in the ward, and Mrs. Crane and I went. Mrs. Quinn went once to Mrs. Bishop's house to work an hour, and I did her work. If any one goes to church, I do their work. Mrs. Whalen did what I asked her to, and we were not unfriendly. Dr. Bishop comes into the ward once a day at irregular times.

He visits the dining room two or three times a week. Dr. Bishop refused to let Mrs. West come out to take care of rooms because Dr. Bergstein questioned her about the wards. I never heard Dr. Bishop say Mrs. Leonard had better be licked. I never said Mrs. Watson would do it. No one was ever put in a cold water bath. It is not true that during Dr. Dawson's time Mrs. Watson's head was put under water. If Mary Whalen says she got a cold water bath it is not true. The time

I complained about the milk I was told the cream was taken off for Dr. Bergstein's table. We were at Dr. Bishop's house on the 4th of July evening about an hour and were back before 9 o'clock. The night watchman was in charge. I went to Stockton for instruction in caring for insane persons and have been here since a year ago last July. The matron under Dr. Shurtliff has been there 15 or 18 years and she uses a towel over the mouth as the best way to handle patients. Since Dr. Bergstein left we have been like one family. There are 35 female patients, and two attendants are enough." Adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

This morning Mrs. Walker's examination was continued. She never abused a patient, and never saw one abused. Nothing new was elicited.

Ellen Freese never saw anything done except what was necessary for the welfare of the patients. When fighting occurred, they were separated, but no more force was used than necessary. No punishment was ever inflicted on patients so far as she knew.

Henry Johnson—Saw Ben Franklin the night when Marsden went to his room. Marsden replaced the bandage on his neck, but did not put his finger on the wound.

Lucius Cox testified regarding the farming operations. Two cows were bought. They were not worth as much money, in his opinion, as was paid for them. Everything done on the farm under direction, was properly done, so far as he knew. Dr. Bishop never denied him any facilities at his command.

A recess of one hour was taken, when the examination of Cox was resumed.

A Drunken Squaw.

Court has adjourned, and the only case before Justice Young this morning was that of a squaw of the Piute persuasion arrested by officer Nash yesterday morning for drunkenness. For obvious reasons a squaw cannot well be committed to jail. The squire, therefore, thought it better, seeing she had been nearly 24 hours in the cooler, was thoroughly sobered, rather hungry and chilled throughout, to discharge her in the hope that she will sin no more.

Election of Officers.

At an election of Reno Chapter No. 7, R. A. M., held at Masonic Hall last evening, the following gentlemen were elected to serve for the ensuing term: R. L. Fulton, H. P.; William Webster, K.; H. G. Fogg, S.; H. P. Kraus, Treasurer, and W. L. Bechtel, Secretary. The officers will be installed December 27.

Odd Fellows Election.

Reno Lodge No. 19, I. O. O. F., elected officers last evening as follows: Al. White, N. G.; C. Lemery, V. G.; W. L. Bechtel, Recording Secretary; J. B. Williams, Financial Secretary; J. J. Becker, Treasurer.

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cold Cured.
In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up, tried every known remedy. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL, a permanent cure was effected. Now I am as old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.

HORACE FAIRBROTHER,
Rockingham, Vt., July 16, 1882.

Group.—A Mother's Tribute.

While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. A friend suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, both of which were kept at the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was well again. I now offer to you that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

Mrs. EMMA GREENEY,
150 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and have had no trouble to promote it as the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried.

A. J. CRANE,
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was led to use AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Bryant, Miss., April 3, 1882.

I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles.

E. BRADON,
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
